DETAILS:

SPRINGFELLOW BARR, 9 Wilton Street, Princeton, New Jersey, former President of the Foundation for World Government, and presently an Associate Professor at Rutgers University, Newark, New Jersey, advised on December 12, 1960, that HARRIS LLEWELLYN WOFFORD, JR., was one of the most extraordinary individuals he had ever met. He said he had known him since he was 17 years old and considered him an outstanding person, a man of the highest character and integrity, and a loyal and devoted American citizen. He said that WOFFORD had had a long career in the Civil Rights movement, and from the time he was a very young man was interested in the problems of Negroes in the United States. He said as a result, WOFFORD studied law for two years at Howard University, a college for Negroes, and was an outstanding student. He said Howard University officials advised him to take his law degree from Howard University and then attend Yale University Law School, which he did. BARR said WOFFORD has law degrees from both Howard University and Yale.

In this regard, Mr. Barr said "I will a great deal in helping him, & he from 2 or 3 years ago."

NK 161-7

BARR said that WOFFORD was a Trustee of the Foundation for World Government from November, 1948, until approximately January, 1950. He said the organization had its headquarters on Park Avenue, New York, from 1948 to 1951 and then it moved to Charlottesville, Virginia. It suspended operations there in 1955, and BARR said that as President of the Foundation for World Government, he actually was working for WOFFORD, who was a much younger man, because he was a member of the Board of Trustees. BARR said that WOFFORD had studied in India at one time, and Chancellor ROBERT M. HUTCHINS, of the University of Chicago, had replaced him as a Board Trustee. He said that when WOFFORD returned to the United States, HUTCHINS withdrew from the Board, and WOFFORD became a Trustee again. He said that WOFFORD had been connected with the Washington Law firm, Convington and Burling.

BARR said that because of his high intelligence and his great interest in the civil rights of Negroes, WOFFORD became the legal counsel for the Reverend THEODORE M. HESBURGH, C.S.C., President of the University of Notre Dame, who was a member of President EISENHOWER's Commission on Civil Rights. He said that as a result of his work as legal counsel for Father HESBURGH, he was appointed a member of the faculty of the Notre Dame Law School and taught there for one year until he took a leave of absence to work for the KENNEDY campaign. BARR said that in addition to being a brilliant lawyer, WOFFORD is an expert on foreign affairs, particularly on India and the Far East. WOFFORD is a friend of MARTIN LUTHER KING, the prominent Negro leader. BARR said that WOFFORD's father was in the insurance business for a number of years in Westchester County, New York, but is connected now with the Business Administration Office at Columbia University, New York City.

Southern Recom.
BARR said that he could only give the highest possible recommendation to WOFFORD, as he considers him one of the most extraordinary and amazing minds in all of the men with whom he has ever had contact. He said he felt that he would be a brilliant addition to either the legal field or any position in Government to which he might be appointed. He said he knew nothing derogatory about WOFFORD and had only the highest praise for him, both as an associate and scholar, and he considers him a completely loyal and trustworthy American citizen and would recommend him for a position with the Government.

Education

Mrs. ISABEL MALONE, Secretary to the Dean, Yale Law School, New Haven, advised on December 12, 1960, that HARRIS LLEWELLYN WOFFORD, Jr., entered Yale Law School in September 1952, as a transfer student from Howard University Law School. She stated he was awarded an LL.B. Degree by Yale on June 7, 1954, standing 9th in a class of 203, and was awarded the Order of the Coif, legal scholastic honors award.

EUGENE V. ROSTOW, Dean of Yale Law School, advised on December 12, 1960, that the appointee was among the best students in Yale Law School during the past twenty years. As an indication of the esteem in which the appointee is held, Dean ROSTOW stated that a member of the Yale Corporation, whom he did not further identify, has stated that he would recommend the appointee for the Presidency of Yale if the position were to be vacated. Dean ROSTOW stated that the appointee is a person of remarkable qualities. He is a member of a southern family and his interest in negro affairs prompted him to attend Howard University Law School. It was suggested to him by Howard Law School faculty members that he should complete his law course at Yale because of his outstanding capabilities. He is a person of great idealism, Dean ROSTOW commented. In his work on the Civil Rights Commission, he was confronted with very delicate problems; he handled himself in this connection with great distinction, winning everyone's respect. Dean ROSTOW stated that the appointee is a person of high character, is honorable, able, and a person whose loyalty to the United States has never been questioned. Dean ROSTOW stated that he would recommend the appointee for a position of trust and responsibility without reservation.

MYRES S. McDUGAL, Sterling Professor of Law, Yale University, advised on December 12, 1960, that he became acquainted with the appointee as a student at Yale Law School. He stated that the appointee's grandparents came from the same region in Mississippi as that from which Professor McDUGAL came. Because of this common background, he took more than a normal amount of interest in the appointee as a student. He stated that he found the appointee to be a very remarkable man. His interest in the negro problems, which prompted him to enroll at Howard University Law School, indicate, Professor McDUGAL stated, that he is a man of courage and flexibility.

Professor McDUGAL advised that he recommended the appointee for the position to which he was subsequently appointed on the Civil Rights Commission, and he has since had some contact with WOFFORD at Notre Dame University. He stated that there was not the slightest question that the appointee is dedicated to the American principles of government and that he is thoroughly opposed to communism. Professor McDUGAL stated that in his opinion, WOFFORD's great ability has never really been tested and no one knows his true capabilities. He said he would recommend WOFFORD without hesitation for a position of high trust.

ELIAS CLARK, Professor of Law, Yale University, advised on December 12, 1960, that he was acquainted with HARRIS WOFFORD while he was a student at Yale Law School. He described WOFFORD as an excellent student and a person of high intelligence whose integrity and loyalty would not be in question. He stated he has done excellent work in the Civil Rights field and he would recommend the appointee without reservation for a position of trust and responsibility.

Neighborhood

On December 12, 1960, Mrs. HOWARD L. BEIN, housewife, Fountain Street, Woodbridge, Connecticut, advised that Fountain Street is also known as the Longhill Section of Woodbridge. She stated that although she was not acquainted with the appointee and could not remember him as having resided in that neighborhood, she did recall that HORACE DAVIS, a resident of Fountain Street, has rented a garage apartment on his property to various students at Yale University, New Haven, in the past. She said that the appointee possibly rented his place of residence in the Longhill section of Woodbridge from Mr. DAVIS.

On December 12, 1960, Mrs. WILDER J. GREELEY, housewife, Fountain St., Woodbridge, advised that she could not recall the appointee as a former resident in the community. She said that Mr. H. WEBB DAVIS has rented his garage apartment to Yale University students in the past and that possibly the appointee rented a place of residence from Mr. DAVIS.

On December 12, 1960, Mr. H. WEBB DAVIS, Trust Officer, Union and New Haven Trust Company, 205 Church St., New Haven, Connecticut, who resides on Fountain Street, Woodbridge, advised that from the summer of 1952 through about the summer of 1954, he rented his garage apartment on Fountain Street to the appointee and his wife.

Mr. DAVIS said that during the above-mentioned period, the appointee was a student at the Yale Law School, Yale University, New Haven, and that he also did secretarial work for CHESTER BOWLES at that time. He said that his relationship with the appointee was that of landlord and tenant, and that, consequently, he could not furnish specific detailed information concerning either WOFFORD or his wife. He recalled, however, that the appointee had been an interesting person, above-average intellectually, and entirely reliable with respect to his obligations as a tenant.

Mr. DAVIS said that he was under the impression that the appointee and his wife had traveled to India, dates unknown, and that thereafter, they wrote a book concerning that country entitled, "India Afire". He said he could not furnish detailed information regarding this book or the identity of the publisher.

Mr. DAVIS stated that no derogatory information concerning the appointee or his wife had ever come to his attention, and he added that his limited acquaintanceship with the appointee prevented him from giving an "all-out recommendation".

On December 12, 1960, Mr. EDWARD J. LOGUE, Development Administrator, City of New Haven, advised that he became acquainted with HARRIS WOFFORD while he, LOGUE, was Administrative Assistant to former Ambassador CHESTER BOWLES. Mr. LOGUE advised that he has had a casual acquaintance with WOFFORD for the past eight years and considers him an intelligent individual of sound judgment. He said that WOFFORD is of excellent moral character, associates and reputation, and he had no reason whatsoever to question his loyalty to the United States.

WEN:mvy

CHARLES G. BOLTE, 28 Pierce Drive, Riverside, Old Greenwich, Connecticut, advised on December 12, 1960, that he has known appointee about fifteen years and that he first met appointee when both were members of the American Veterans Committee in New York City. BOLTE stated that his acquaintance with appointee developed into a close personal friendship when both he and appointee became active in attempting to thwart the efforts of Communist elements within the American Veterans Committee to take over this organization. BOLTE stated that in the last few years, he has not seen appointee too frequently but that they meet whenever possible. BOLTE described appointee as a person with a rare combination of nobility of character and good "operational sense". He stated that appointee is without question a completely loyal American, a person of excellent judgment, fine moral character and an individual whose associations have always been of the very highest. BOLTE stated that he would recommend appointee unreservedly for a position of trust with the United States Government.

BOLTE added that he knows appointee's wife quite well and has also frequently met appointee's parents. BOLTE stated that appointee's wife and parents were equally trustworthy individuals and without question loyal Americans.

Credit and Criminal

Officer GRANT PITCHER, New Haven, Connecticut, Police Department, advised on December 12, 1960, that there was no record in the files of this department identifiable with the appointee or his wife, EMMY LOU (CLARE) WOFFORD.

On the same date, Chief of Police RICHARD CIARLEGIO, Woodbridge, Connecticut, Police Department, advised that there is no record in the files of that department identifiable with the appointee and his wife.

CHICAGO COUNCIL OF AMERICAN SOVIET FRIENDSHIP

EDWIN GORDON FOX, 7147 Jeffrey Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, (now deceased), made available in January, 1954, the "First Annual Report CCASF", an undated publication which stated that the Chicago Council of American Soviet Friendship (CCASF) was incorporated in July, 1943. This document stated, "The Council's affiliation with the National Council of American Soviet Friendship (NCASF) was validated August 11, (1943). The present name was adopted to conform to standard national practice. It should be noted, however, that the Chicago Council is entirely autonomous; the government of its affairs rests exclusively in the hands of its Chicago Executive Board."

A source advised on May 25, 1960, that the Board of Directors of the CCASF held a meeting on May 24, 1960 and during this meeting discussed a proposed draft of objectives for the Council for the year 1960. This draft, among other things, reiterated that the main aims of the Council were peaceful co-existence and friendship with the USSR.

This same source also advised on May 25, 1960, that the CCASF remains affiliated with the NCASF for the purpose of implementing its stated aims of peaceful co-existence and friendship with the USSR, but continues to consider itself autonomous in the government of its affairs and program for achieving these aims. Although the CCASF considers itself autonomous in this regard, the leaders of the CCASF are frequently in contact with and its program closely follows that of the NCASF.

The NCASF has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order #10450.
